The Office of the Data Protection Commissioner will host the Network of African Data Protection Authorities (NADPA) Annual General Meeting and Conference from 7th to 9th May 2024 at the Windsor Hotel and Golf Club. The NADPA-RAPDP AGM & Conference is an annual gathering of data protection authorities, sector decision-makers, businesses as well as investors and multinational executives operating around Africa and beyond. The Conference is expected to be a significant gathering with over 700 participants from 07-09 May 2024 in attendance.

The conference theme Promoting Regional Data Governance for Digital Transformation will seek to achieve several key objectives, including facilitating the exchange of knowledge and experiences among African data protection authorities to strengthen the implementation of robust data protection frameworks.

Ahead of the event, the Office the Data Protection Commissioner will host a media breakfast meeting on Monday, 29th April 2024 starting from 7.00am. The forum is aimed at initiating engagement with the media and raising awareness about the significance of NADPA AGM and Conference.

Please provide coverage.
